WATERFEST NEWS!

Linda Rhode, who works with the Oshkosh Chamber to make sure that the Women's Division gets on the schedule of workers for Waterfest reports:

At the BoDeans concert, there were 4,950 attendants!

Doobie Brothers, there were 6000 attendants!

We received a big "thank you" from the Chamber—saying we were the best group! We also received many compliments from the patrons coming through the lines--saying how organized we were; this happened on both nights. THANKS!!!

Our deepest sympathy to: Mary Berger in the loss of her sister-in-law and daughter-in-law; to Denise Griedl and family in the loss of her brother; to Jaye Roeming in the loss of her father-in-law

Get well wishes to Jaye Roeming for recovery from surgery.

Congratulations to Heather Verwiel (mom) and Linda Verwiel (Oma) in the birth of a new baby girl, Addisyn.

After consulting with the Miss Wisconsin organization and the Miss America organization, the Women's Division of Oshkosh Area, Inc., and the Miss Oshkosh Scholarship Pageant notified VeiJzahn Knight on September 14, 2011, that due to the breach of her Contestant Contract with the Miss Oshkosh Scholarship Pageant, she is no longer eligible to participate or complete her year of service as Miss Oshkosh.

The Women's Division and Miss Oshkosh Pageant are moving forward. You will be updated very soon of future developments. Thank you for your patience and support.

If you have any questions concerning this matter, please contact co-chairs of the Women's Division/Miss Oshkosh Pageant committee: Gordy Lund at 231-2282 OR Gert Schultz at 235-5068, OR Marilyn McCormick at 233-0222
